Mole Wetherell

Mole is the Artistic Director of Reckless Sleepers, an idea that took shape thirty years ago. Mole is a visual artist, designer and theatre maker. As an independent artist, he has designed buildings for making work including his current studio Kerkstraat261 sound installations, publications and exhibitions. He has been the creative force in developing all of Reckless Sleepers performance projects and programmes.

Leen Dewilde

Leen is a dancer and visual artist, who joined Reckless Sleepers in 2006. In 2012 she presented a research idea with four other dancers which became A String Section, a project that has been presented in galleries, theatres and larger-scale indoor and outdoor sites around the world. In 2018 Leen began creating a new project for galleries called With All We Know.

Kevin Egan

Kevin is a performer and academic lecturer in Contemporary Theatre and Performance at Manchester Metropolitan University. He has designed lighting and sound projects with and for Reckless Sleepers since 2006. He is a performer in the Reckless Sleepers shows Schrödinger and Negative Space.

Alex Covell

Alex joined Reckless Sleepers in 2012 after graduating from the company's emerging artist programme called Club Reckless. He is a performer in the Reckless Sleepers show Schrödinger and was a core contributor in the development of Negative Space.

Reckless Sleepers

Reckless Sleepers create visually stimulating, physically demanding and challenging performances. The company is a collective of thirteen artists with specialisms in visual art, dance, and performance. Our live work has always been created out of a rigorous process of research and development often arising from simple questions, tasks and actions.

Unicorn Theatre

The Unicorn Theatre is the UK's leading theatre for young audiences, producing an eclectic and surprising programme of work year-round for children aged 6 months to 18 years. Based in our purpose-built home at London Bridge, the Unicorn aims to connect artists and audiences through a broad range of work that is honest, refreshing and international in outlook, across a range of disciplines. The Unicorn presents and tours twelve to fifteen shows each year, at home and abroad, to around 90,000 children and their parents and carers, and works extensively with schools and in the community to invite children from all cultures into a conversation about art and the world we live in.
